What is The Wild Bunch Film Festival?

The Wild Bunch Film Festival is a competitive event dedicated to making things happen for emerging filmmakers and hoping to inspire and encourage filmmakers to pursue courageous and bold artistic visions for the western genre.

The three-day festival, held in Tishomingo, Oklahoma is the first of its kind, and will be known for embracing the heart and spirit of independent western films.

Our hope is to attract the high profile and novice filmmakers, so attendees of the festival will enjoy several artistic experiences of western films and individuals driven by the true and raw spirit of independent movie making.

What if I have questions during the festival?

Any festival volunteer will be happy to help you - just look for The Wild Bunch - Name Badges.

Are your Show Times exact?

The Wild Bunch Film Festival will make every effort for a film to start at its scheduled time, but sometimes Filmmaker Q&As run long and films may start early or late. To be safe it's always a good practice to arrive a bit early for the film you want to see.

What makes TWBFF screenings different?

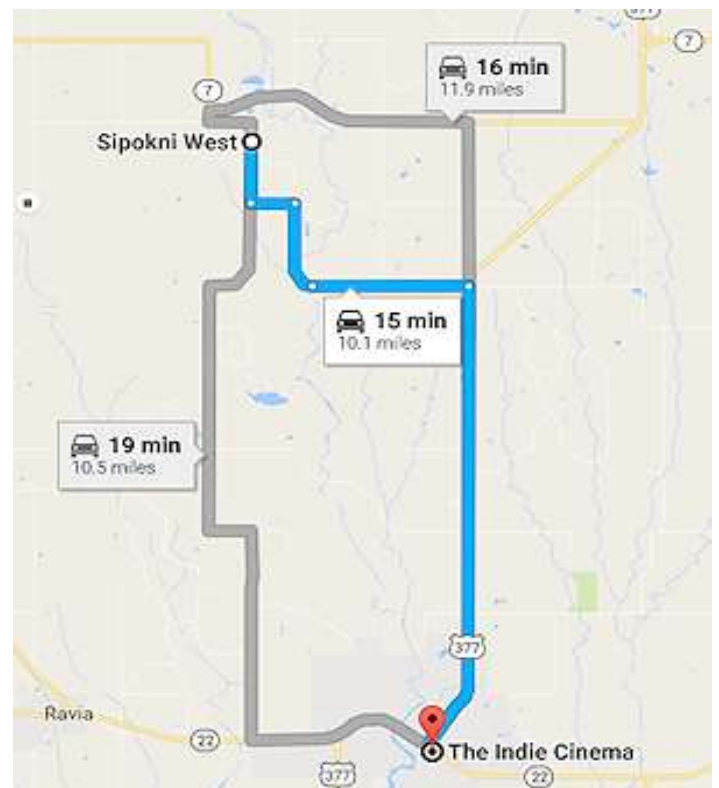

It's all about the western genre. But even though it's specific to westerns, there's a wide variety of sub-genres of westerns such as classical, contemporary, meat pie, spaghetti, horror, comedy, etc.

Are your films rated?

Most of the films at TWBFF have not yet been rated by the Motion Picture Association of America (MPAA) and therefore have not received an 'Official' rating; however, we have created a ratings system based on MPAA standards giving consideration to the local viewing audience. Festival goers should exercise discretion when attending a film, but please note that all films shown will be either rated G, PG or PG13.
