Are your Show Times exact?

The Wild Bunch Film Festival will make every effort for a film to start at its scheduled time, but sometimes films may start early or late, due to Q&As running long or short. To be safe it's always a good practice to arrive a bit early for the film you want to see. In rare situations, a film that has not been sent in by the deadline date could be disqualified and the film schedule could possibly change without notice, and would be out of our control.

What makes TWBFF screenings different?

It's all about the western genre. But even though it's specific to westerns, there's a wide variety of sub-genres of westerns such as classical, contemporary, meat pie, spaghetti, horror, comedy, etc. It all culminates with a BIG AWARD SHOW!

Are your films rated?

Most of the films at TWBFF have not yet been rated by the Motion Picture Association of America (MPAA) and therefore have not received an 'Official' rating; however, we have created a ratings system based on MPAA standards giving consideration to the local viewing audience. Festival goers should exercise discretion when attending a film.

Where to stay?

There are several links on the website. Look for "Places to Stay" link at thewildbunchfilmfestival.com

MEET KRISTINA WAYBORN ON SUNDAY OCT 3RD
SIGNING AUTOGRAPHS 3PM TO 4PM.

See her in “WARNING: NO TRESPASSING” screening Fri Oct 1st at 8:20pm

Kristina Wayborn was born Britt-Inger Johansson in Nybro, Sweden. After being elected Miss Sweden in 1970 she was a semi-finalist in the Miss Universe pageant. The same year she was also elected Miss Scandinavia. She portrayed screen legend Greta Garbo in The Silent Lovers (1980) which brought her to the attention of the producers of the James Bond films. She was cast as Magda in the James Bond film Octopussy (1983). During a fight scene in the film, the act went wrong and Wayborn suffered several broken toes. Despite the accident, she became well known for her fight scenes in Octopussy, in an era predating the big female action heroines of the box office. Her character Magda beat up many of Kamal Khan's guards, showing a surprising agility and acumen for martial arts. She subsequently appeared in a number of American television series such as The Love Boat (1982-1986), Airwolf (1986), MacGyver (1986), Dallas (1986), General Hospital (1987), Designing Women (1991), Baywatch (1993-1999) and That '70s Show (2000) in which she was re-united with her Octopussy co-star Maud Adams.
