

Booked & Busy

The Audition Technique and Business Tips That Keep You Working

A 90-Minute Acting Seminar with Tom Proctor

In this 90-minute seminar, actor Tom Proctor pulls back the curtain on 35 years and 150-plus films — from Guardians of the Galaxy and Django Unchained to 12 Years a Slave, Lawless, and Justified, plus the TV series Blue Ridge and his film Birthright Outlaw — to hand you the exact tools it took him decades to figure out the hard way. His mission is simple: get you where you want to be faster, without making the mistakes that cost him time. At the center of it is his signature audition technique — the one thing that consistently gets him to the callback, if not the booking, by separating him from every other actor in the casting director's stack.

The second half is all about the business of the business — because talent alone doesn't keep you working. Tom shares the practical, real-world habits that keep a career alive and keep you in front of the people who hire, long after the audition is over.

What's covered:

- Tom's #1 audition technique — the approach designed to make you stand out from the rest of the room and land the callback every time
- Standing out to casting directors — what actually separates a memorable audition from a forgettable one
- The business side of acting — the professional habits that keep you booking and staying relevant
- Staying in the limelight — how to build and maintain visibility so you're top of mind when roles come up
- Lessons from 35 years and 150+ films — the costly mistakes to skip and the shortcuts Tom wishes he'd known early
- Live Q&A — bring your questions about auditioning, breaking in, and lasting in the industry

Actors are advised to sign up early — a set of sides for a scene that will be used in the class will be sent out to registered participants ahead of the seminar. Tickets for the seminar are on sale now at <https://thewildbunchfilmfestival.com>

Be sure to catch Tom's projects screening at the Wild Bunch Film Festival — the TV series Blue Ridge and a special screening of the film 'Birthright Outlaw' (first time premiering in a Movie theatre) — each followed by a live Q&A with Tom.
